Democratic-Northwest. AND HENRY COUNTY NEWS.

WASNT Gen. Longstreet a little slow in getting that explanation before the people of the South?

That Texas frost blighted a number of political boomlets from which the Democratic coverings had been removed too early.

Should the advice of Coxy and other loud mouthed demagogues be followed and the Government attempt to support the people, pray, who would support the government?

The "hard times" haven't impoverished the Salvation Army, which has started to erect an $80,000 building for National headquarters, in New York.

Gov. FLOWER seems to have hit the Republicans hard by his veto of that police bill, if it be fair to judge by the squealing they are doing.

No wonder Whitlaw Reid calls the rumor that he was to be the Republican nominee for Governor of New York silly. He may be a hoodoo, but he isn't a fool.

If any man or woman thinks the Gould family an easy one to marry in to one trial will convince them of their mistake.

In order that no one should charge the Senate investigating committee with political favoritism, Vice President Stevenson gave the balance of power on it to a populist.

SOME women are so anxious to reform the world that they neglect their own children, but there are none of that kind among the readers of this paper.

When the Government provides everybody with all the money they want, it will be asked to see that every fellow gets the girl he wants for a wife. One will be no more difficult than the other.

DEMOCRATIC SENATORS should bear in mind that it isn't the time they meet, but the time they vote, in which the people are deeply interested.

LORD ROSEBERY'S recognition of the fact that it is easy to be the man of the future, but extremely difficult to be the man of the present, speaking well for his common sense.

SENATOR QUAY'S bad health was apparently assumed merely to delay the debate on the tariff bill. Like the tariff bill, he appears to be quite sprightly now.

That Senate investigation committee is handicapped by a Supreme Court Court decision that witnesses cannot be punished for refusing to testify on matters connected with any citizen's private affairs.

It was a little rough on the Republicans employed in the Government Printing Office that they should have been taxed on the eve of losing their jobs to buy a $500 gold watch and chain to be presented to ex-Public Printer Palmer.

It is the men who labor with their jaws, not those who use either hand or brain, who are constantly making trouble for everybody, in order to make a "snap" for themselves.

FRANCE and England have had some experience in legislation to meet the demands of mobs, and the lessons thus taught will never be forgotten in the United States.

The best example of a paternal government the world has is that of Russia. Is it a Czar that the paternalists are after in this country? The first requisites of all paternal governments are strength and centralization, which are inevitably followed by autocracy.

NEW YORK FASHIONS.

Tailor-Made Suits: Independent Waists: Graduating Dresses: Hostelry.

Judging from present appearances, this will certainly be a "tailor-made" season, almost all materials suitable for street wear sharing the same fate, and dusty skirt ruffles now scarcely exist. The sole drawback however is, that the "tailor-made" amounts to nothing unless well cut; therefore home dressmaking must be expended upon less exacting costumes. Flannels are almost entirely superseded by duck, pique or linen, and as fashion always supplies an endless variety, large collars which button on the under side, are brought out especially for these tailor-made suits, having a very deep sailor back and broad, revers at the front. Striped Galates is particularly well adapted to this purpose, and five or six different ones, are about the usual supply.

WITH COTTON JACKETS so greatly in the ascendency, vests are more varied than ever, and for cool days, those of cloth closed to the throat are a real protection; but for summer, pique or striped silk are shown, and full, colored silk frocks, trimmed with lace insertion, mitigate the severity of the low cut vest and linen shirt front. Striped or plain colored cambric waists with a black belt, are less expensive than any other vest arrangement; many being made with small sleeves, especially for jacket wear. Independent cambric muslin or silk waists are very fancifully made, almost always with bretelles or two or three shoulder frills, those of the two first named not unfrequently scalloped in black, or a white yoke with rows of narrow black velvet run through open lace, from the shoulder to the throat and tied with a full velvet bow in great favor; but a subject of special interest to ladies just now, is the introduction of a new brand of spool cotton, the trade mark being N-E-W, manufactured by the Wm. Clark Co., and its superiority is so manifest that it has been taken up by the largest dealers, dressmakers especially giving it preference. Quite a novel idea in chine' gingham dresses, is a parasol and hat to match; the gingham is shirred on a frame with a fancy black straw edging, and trimmed with field flowers and grasses.

THE FIRST REQUISITE of graduating dresses is simplicity, and the professors of many prominent schools now prohibit on these occasions any distinctions of wealth. Silk or cotton mull, lawn or pin-dotted Swiss muslin are very generally employed; skirts just escaping the floor, with a ruffle of the material and perhaps a row of lace insertion. A belted round waist with white satin or moire ribbon straps from shoulder to waist, collar and sometimes bows at the shoulder, with bow at the back of the belt, is the general model upon which these dresses are formed. Square yokes of puffs and insertion may be used, and sash ends are optional. High neck and long sleeves are universal this season, and epaulettes of embroidery are often set in the armhole. White shoes and stockings give the requisite finish, at the same time black are admissible. White or colored pin-dotted Swiss muslin is the most popular of all sheer fabrics; so much so that pin dotted ruffling edged by handsome embroidery is brought out in pieces for trimming purposes, and even black dotted Swiss, over black silk, will be very fashionable for persons not wearing morning.

PLAIN BROWN IS THE LEADING COLOR for general wear in hosiery, variety by lengthwise lace ribs at the front and the Rickieu rib at the back. Black still holds good, particularly lace open work for evening. Embroidered white silk, minute colored dots on black or colors, and vertical contrasting stripes, are a few of the leading styles.

VERONA CLARKE.

MONTAQUE, Mich., Nov. 13, 1893. W. Windeknecht, a wealthy farmer of Muskegon Co., personally appeared before me, this day, and says: "That for the past year or so he was afflicted with weakness, trembling, heart failure, extreme nervousness and headache; that he consulted with Physicians but received no benefit. He was persuaded by a friend to try a sample bottle of Dr. Wm. W. Windeknecht's Nerve Tonic, and he says the trembling and nervous feeling was immediately stopped by its use. Afterwards he used two bottles of the same medicine and says he is entirely cured."

Signed, W. W. WINDEKNECHT. Sworn to and subscribed before me a Notary Public for Muskegon Co., State of Michigan. J. S. MORRISON.

HALLO! What's the matter with the Republican Senators? They now acknowledge that they are hopelessly divided on the tariff bill, while there are 43 Democratic votes pledged to the bill, which is expected to become a law, according to the original programme, on the first of July.

A hysterical contemporary called Coxyism "the growling of the workers." It looks more like the working of the growlers.

Gross Attempt to Misrepresent the Licking Democracy.

In an article under the caption of "Money the Main Question," the Cincinnati Enquirer grossly misrepresents the letter and spirit of the resolutions passed by the Democracy of Licking county at their Convention last Saturday. Two sets of resolutions were offered in the Convention, both of which were practically of the same purport and meaning on the tariff question. But one of these sets of resolutions, which was offered as a substitute for the other, was more specific in statement on the silver question.

The substitute, however, which was adopted, was equally as clear and emphatic on the tariff question as the resolutions which were originally introduced. Its language, which is as follows, speaks for itself:

"We congratulate the Democratic House of Representatives upon the passage of the Wilson Bill, and accept it as the nearest attainable fulfillment of the platform pledge in favor of tariff reform. We urge the Democrats of the Senate to end the delay so detrimental to the interests of the country, by the immediate passage of the bill for tariff reform."

"We are especially gratified by the action of the House in restoring the income tax, and we hereby endorse it as a just and wise step toward the restoration of equality in taxation."

In this resolution there was not dissenting voice or opinion in the convention. Any resolution demanding the immediate passage of a tariff reform bill by Congress, even through the measure called for more radical reduction than those of the Wilson bill, would have been unanimously adopted by the convention of last Saturday. The discussion of the resolution adopted showed no division of sentiment whatever on the necessity for immediate tariff reform.

But so far as the silver question was concerned the resolution on that subject was by no means adopted overwhelmingly. On the contrary it barely passed by a small majority, the vote being 107 yeas to 97 nays.

The Enquirer's article, therefore, in claiming or construing that any action of the Democratic Convention in this city of last Saturday means that Money is the main question is a perversion of the fact and a misrepresentation of the sentiments of the Democracy of Licking county.

Furthermore, if the idea had been advanced in the convention of Saturday that the Enquirer would resort to such use of the silver resolution adopted as an argument against the immediate passage of the Wilson bill, that resolution would not have received a dozen votes. It would have been scouted out to the convention.

The Democracy of Licking county are not in favor of abandoning the great question of tariff reform for the silver question or any other question just now. The first demand of the Democracy of Old Licking is that the tariff question shall be settled, and that it shall be settled promptly and rightly. All other questions are secondary.

THE Democrats of Missouri in their state convention held at Kansas City adopted a platform demanding free coinage of both gold and silver and the restoration of the bi-metallic standard. They claimed that it is the duty enjoined upon congress by the constitution to coin both gold and silver; that congress has no right to refuse the coinage of either metal; that in case it should be necessary to change the ratio of coinage that this should be effected by finding out whether gold has appreciated or silver depreciated and that in this chance of ratio the rights of both creditor and debtor should be carefully considered. They declare that they are opposed to gold monometallism or silver monometallism, but that both should be coined at such ratio as will maintain the two metals in circulation. They insist upon the Democratic doctrine of Jackson and Benton, that all moneys shall be issued by the authority of congress and its value maintained by the government; that they are opposed to the further increase of the interest bearing debt of the government and to farming out the monetary circulation to national banks.

Cure for Smallpox.

CHICAGO, ILL., May 19.—To the Editor.—A cure for smallpox and scarlet fever which ex-Rev. Adironack

Murray claims to be as infallible as fate is composed of one grain of sulphate of zinc, one grain of digitalis (commonly known as fox-glove), and half a teaspoonful of sugar. This is to be thoroughly mixed with two teaspoonfuls of water and four ounces of water added. The dose for adults is one teaspoonful every hour and for children smaller doses according to age.

Murray says: "The medicine is harmless and is recommended by the best school in Paris. I have cured my children of scarlet fever and others of smallpox when the doctors said the patients must die. Either disease under this treatment will disappear in twelve hours. If the countries would compel their physicians to use it there would be no need of pesthouses.—Inter Ocean."

Tottie, who is only a mite of three years old, had seen her mother curl and cut her elder sister's hair. One warm afternoon last week she mother, who had been asleep, was awakened by Tottie's soft caresses and cries of "Wake up, mamma. You're dot bangs in the back of your head." She opened her eyes to see the small vandall dancing gleefully around the room, a pair of scissors in one hand and her own golden locks in the other. Her head looked as though it had been struck by a cyclone, and since then she has been wearing a wig.

A Medical Miracle.

Something that three months ago would have been hailed as a miracle, and that even yet seems almost as impossible as the wild dreams of the Arabian Nights, took place in Delaware recently, and by this scientific miracle the life of a tender babe was saved. The physicians who read this, and others who take a more than ordinary interest in the advance of medical science, are aware that some three months ago an eminent physician purely by accident, discovered that permanent of potash is an effective antidote for morphine poisoning. He tested this to his own satisfaction, and then made known his discovery through the medical journals some three months ago.

The sixteen months' old child of Mr. and Mrs. Ferd Volk was suffering some time with cerebral spinal meningitis. When this disease is present, it renders the sufferer peculiarly liable to opiate influence, and the effect of the drug is very uncertain. A dose of 1-120 of a grain was given the child, and it had a very injurious effect, as it presented all the appearance of a case of morphia poisoning. The extremities grew blue and cold, the pulse slow, and the respiration labored. The eyes were dropped, and the death rattle was heard in the throat. To all appearances the child was about to go over the dark river. One physician who had been laboring with the child gave the case up as hopeless, and left. One who was left, Dr. F. M. Murray, worked on utterly without hope, inspired only by that sentiment of the physician, to resist the great destroyer as long as possible. Suddenly the new remedy, permanent of potash, came into his mind, and he gave the child a strong hypodermic injection. The good effect became immediately apparent, and in two hours the child had been taken from the jaws of death. This was the first time this remedy has been used in the State of Ohio.

Madam, your attention, please. Do you expect to dye this season? We mean, will you dye any stockings, carpet rags, cloaks, dresses, feathers, or anything; for if you intend to, we are anxious to have you dye with Magic Dyes. They are easy to use and we believe them superior to most other brands. Carpet weavers who have used them say they give more durable colors which don't crack or fade like others. They color cotton, wool, etc., with same package, thus doing better work on mixed goods. Although the packages are larger and color about double the good, we sell them at 10 cents, same as other brands. At Saur & Balesky's, Napoleon, Ohio.

and have induced many to use it.

"Thirty-five years ago this Spring, I was run down by hard work and a succession of colds, which made me so feeble that it was an effort for me to walk. I consulted the doctors, but kept sinking lower until I had given up all hope of ever being better. Happening to be in a store, one day, where medicines were sold, the proprietor noticed my weak and sickly appearance, and, after a few questions as to my health, recommended me to try Ayer's Pills. I had little faith in these or any other medicine, but, concluded, at last, to take his advice and try a box. Before I had used them all, I was very much better, and two boxes cured me. I am now 80 years old; but I believe that if it had not been for Ayer's Pills, I should have been in my grave long ago. I buy 6 boxes every year, which make 210 boxes up to this time, and I would not more be without them than without bread."—H. H. Ingraham, Rockland, Me.
